more than two acres. Even the half acre land which they have got are not with them. They are not in physical possession of the land. Will the Government send sombody atleast now to verify ? I am giving the instance of Kongandahalli. Will the hon. Minister take action to verify this and place the report before the House ?

SRI MALLKARJUN M. KHARGE.—I will definitely take action. I will ask may Tahsildar to verify. According to the reports I have, out of 78 land owners, 39 belong to Scheduled castes. Nearly 110 acre land is in fauour of Scheduled Castes. If that land is not with them, definitely we will take appropriate action against the concerned.

Manufacturing of Ayurvedic and Allopathic Drugs

395 SRI G. BASAVANNAPPA (Holehonnur)— Will the Minister for Health and Family Welfare be pleased to state :—

(a) whether there is any provision for Allopathic Drug Companies to Manufacture Ayurvedic Drugs and Vice-Versa and if, so, under what provision of law ;

(b) the number of Companies Manufacturing both Ayurvedic and Allopathic Drugs (detailed information be furnished) ;

(c) whether the Drugs Sellers are allowed to sell both Allopathic and Aynrvedic Drugs, if so the number of drug sellers authorised to do so ;

(d) whether any action has been taken on any drug seller for violating the rules ?

SRI A. K. ABDUL SAMAD.—(Minister for Health and Family Welfare)

(a) Yes, Under Rule 157 of the Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945 for Allopathic Drug manufacturers, and under Rule, 71 for Ayurvedic Drug Manufacturers to enable each category of manufacturer to manufacture drugs of the other category respectively.

(b) 1. M/s. The Bangalore Pharmaceticals and Research Laboratory (P) Ltd.

2. M/s. Eros Pharama, No. 67, Industrial Area, 3rd phase, Peenya, Bangalore-58.

3. M/s. The Anglo French Drug Co. (Eastern) Ltd. SSI Area, V Block, Rajajinagar, Bangalore-10.

(c) Sales of Ayurvedic Drugs do not require any licence to be held or taken under the Drugs and Cosmetic Rules, 1945.

(d) The question does not arise.

SRI G. BASAVANNAPPA.—No supplementaries.